Little Face (Simon Waterhouse & Charlie Zailer Series #1

Sophie Hannah has a gift for making me very, very angry. Little Face is a psychological thriller about a new mother who returns home to a baby she claims isn't hers, and who subsequently disappears with the baby. Told in alternating points of view (which, based on the only other book of hers that I've read, seems to be her gimmick), we see ...

Fiction Book Review: Little Face by Sophie Hannah, Author

This is the beginning of the Culver Valley series. It is strong - stronger than the ones to come. The conclusions of Sophie Hannah's books are often a tough sell. A bit too convoluted and "I took a Psych class once." I also didn't buy that the nickname for the baby was "Little Face." Little Face? That's not a thing.
